

Woman
Giving Fund

GRANT GUIDELINES

ABOUT US

- Wayward Woman Giving Fund (WWGF) is a vibrant and collaborative giving circle that encourages 'Wayward Women' to become micro-philanthropists and be part of a thriving and collaborative giving circle community that endeavours to create significant and positive change in the world.
- We empower our members by giving them a choice regarding their contribution and where it should be invested, while at the same time we create an affordable membership structure that is accessible to women from all financial backgrounds.
- We encourage diversity and invite women from different cultures, age groups and with different life experiences to become members.
- We aim to support individual projects and community-focused organisations that may not be eligible to receive funding from mainstream funding bodies.
- WWGF is a subsidiary of the Society of Australian Punk Inc (SOAP), a registered charity with the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission.

ARE YOU ELIGIBLE TO APPLY?

Our focus is on supporting and funding creative projects and programs that:

- Have the goal of creating social change through art and culture.
- Have a strong focus on working collaboratively with communities.

Projects and programs can include:

- The creation of artwork by, with and for the community.
- The engagement of highly skilled arts and culture practitioners.
- The development of a performance, exhibition, program or some other cultural activity.
- Social inclusivity.
- An educational component that may be beneficial to the wider community.
- A community-centred and collaborative approach.

- All individuals must have an ABN and must provide an invoice to WWGF so that we have a record of all financial transactions.
- All organisations that receive funding must have Non-profit or Charitable status – i.e., be an incorporated association or an organisation that is registered as a charity with the Australian Charity and Non-Profit Commission (ACNC). A receipt of funds must be sent to WWGF, so that we have a record of all financial transactions.
- Overseas registered charities are not eligible.

ALL APPLICANTS WILL BE EVALUATED BASED ON THE FOLLOWING CRITERIA:

- Your project or organisation targets our key area.
- Evidence of the need or problem being addressed.
- What are the goals and outcomes of the project/activity?
- Demonstrate previous experience in delivering the project/activity.
- Demonstrate how the funds will be spent.

EXPENDITURE THAT WILL NOT BE SUPPORTED

Expenditure that will not be supported includes:

- General ongoing operating expenses e.g., core staff salaries, maintenance etc.
- Note: A professional fee may be considered, provided that a strong rationale is given.
- Legal expenses.
- Scholarships (high school and tertiary education) or Post Doctoral Research.
- Debt reduction or operational deficits.
- Fundraising and/or capital campaigns.
- Faith based or religious activities.
- Construction, purchase or renovation of buildings/facilities, assets or equipment that are primarily for the purpose of administration functions.

HOW TO APPLY

- After reading the above guidelines carefully, complete the application contained on our website.
- The closing date for applications is stated on the grants page of our website.
- As a courtesy to all who have worked up to this timeframe, no late applications will be accepted.
- If you have any questions, please email: waywardwomangivingfund@gmail.com

FUNDING CONDITIONS

If successful, it is expected that grant funds will be expended:

- In accordance with the full grant application provided by successful applicants and within 12 months of being paid.
- The contribution of WWGF is to be acknowledged in all relevant publications, promotional materials, and press releases. Our Logo is to be added to all relevant publications, promotional materials, and press releases and you must mention us on Social Media.
- Public liability insurance and any other insurance appropriate to the activities within your proposal are the sole responsibility of the applicant.
- If you apply for a grant, you must ensure that the activity of your application complies with relevant statutes, regulations, by-laws, mandatory codes and requirements of any government authority or department. It is your responsibility to be aware of laws and protocols that regulate the way you must conduct your work.
- Privacy – the information submitted on the application form will be used for the purposes of determining whether an organisation will be considered to receive funding. The information will be accessible to the WWGF members of the Grants Committee for these purposes. If your application is successful, then all relevant information will be made publicly available.